Article I        NAME

1. The organization shall be named the APICS Toronto Chapter Inc.
2. The APICS Toronto Chapter Inc., hereinafter called the Toronto Chapter, is chartered as authorized by Bylaw VI, Section A and B of the Bylaws of APICS Canadian District.

Article II        PURPOSES

The purposes of the Toronto Chapter are:

1. To support furthering the knowledge of members and non-members in the philosophy, practices and techniques of resource management. Resource management covers an array of business entity functions including, supply chain management, operations management, performance management, logistics, and transportation.
2. To support the improvement of the status of those engaged in the management of resources and work towards professional recognition through networking opportunities and CPIM, CSCP, SCOR, and CLTD designations.
3. To provide on-going professional development opportunities to members and non-members.

Article III        BYLAW

1. These articles shall be the governing rules of the Toronto Chapter.
2. Notwithstanding any provision in these articles, the Bylaws of APICS Inc. shall apply.
3. These articles are effective, having received an affirmative vote of two-thirds of the participating members present at a General Meeting.

4. These Bylaws shall be reviewed by a special committee appointed by the Board of Directors, to review and propose amendments to the Chapter Bylaws as needed. The amendments deemed necessary by the Board shall be submitted in writing to the membership, at least two (2) weeks prior to any General or Special Meeting of the Toronto Chapter.
5. The affirmative vote of at least two-thirds of the participating members at the meeting is required for the adoption of any amendment.

Article IV MEMBERSHIP

1. Membership in APICS (“APICS Members”) is open to business entities and individual professionals from around the world who are committed to building excellence in supply chain performance; who meet eligibility criteria established from time to time by APICS.

This may include, but is not limited to:

- A) Corporate Members are corporations, limited liability companies, partnerships, associations and other business or non-profit organizations that have submitted an application for membership in APICS and have been accepted by APICS
- B) Individual Members are natural persons who have submitted an application for membership in APICS and have been accepted by APICS.

Within these groups, membership may include, but is not limited to:

- Professional Membership – paid by an individual person;
- Group / Enterprise Membership – a group of members covered under the company’s paid membership;
- Student Membership is offered to students at significantly reduced membership dues while they pursue a degree, at an accredited college or university – undergraduate or graduate. Regardless of the number of credit hours taken, a person is not eligible for APICS Student Membership if gainfully employed on a full-time basis. Membership privileges will be limited and will not extend to voting rights;
- Young Professional Membership is offered to new professionals who were enrolled as a full-time student and had recently graduated from an accredited institution with a bachelor’s or master’s degree. The benefit is reduced membership cost;
- Academic Professional Membership is employed full-time by one or more accredited academic institutions as professor, assistant professor, researcher, dean, lecturer, or equivalent international title. This entitles the member full individual benefits;
- Retired Membership – if an individual is 62 or older, has retired from formal employment, and has been an APICS chapter member for a minimum of five years, that person is eligible for Retired Membership. This entitles the member to full individual benefits. Retired membership requires approval from the member’s local chapter president on an annual basis.

The most recent and complete listing of all memberships are available at www.apics.org.

2. Membership rights include, but are not limited to the following:
  - The right to nominate and vote at the Annual General Meeting to select the members of the Board of Directors.

- Any member may attend any function of the Toronto Chapter, and may attend the annual APICS conference.
  - The right to receive all APICS corporate and local publications.
  - A member can resign at any time, but is not entitled to a refund of dues.
3. The Board of Directors may suspend or expel any member for just cause. The offending member shall first be given an opportunity to explain their actions to the Board of Directors. The name of an expelled member shall be removed from the membership roll and shall not be considered eligible for re-application of membership for a period of at least two years.
